

8,000 D. C. CATHOLICS WILL PARADE TODAY

Holy Name Society Members Leave at 1 o'clock for Baltimore Procession.

More than 8,000 members of the Holy Name Society, of Washington, will entrain at Union Station at 1 o'clock this afternoon for the archdiocesan parade of that organization to be held in Baltimore today. Ten train sections on the Baltimore and Ohio will carry the delegation and they will be met in the Monumental City by at least 18,000 Baltimore Holy Name sodalists and by several thousand others from Upper Maryland cities.

The Washington delegation, waving American flags and bearing Holy Name pennants, will occupy the head of the Baltimore procession this afternoon, and will be led by John Hickey Doyle, president of the Washington delegation. Following Mr. Doyle, as his personal staff, will be 200 prominent local members of the society in frock attire. President Smith, of the Baltimore Archdiocese, will be chief marshal of the parade.

Each member of the Washington delegation will wear an arm band of the organization and will carry a red carnation in his buttonhole. The carnations will be deposited at the foot of the reviewing stand, where the procession passes Cardinal Gibbons. The carnations will be of the cardinal's shade of red.

President Doyle said last night that everything was in readiness for the largest demonstration ever shown in the archdiocese and that the Washington contingency would exceed by far any number that has gone to Baltimore heretofore. Along with the members of the society, he said he expected many other Catholics of Washington to make the trip to the Maryland city to review the parade. An unusual number of excursion tickets, it was learned last night, has already been sold over the lines connecting the two cities.

The formation of the lines of paraders preparatory to the start for Baltimore will begin at Union Station shortly after noon today, and the hour prior to the departure will be spent aligning the sections on the Union Station Plaza for entrainment. In Baltimore the delegation will fall into line according to parishes as it leaves the trains, and will begin the march through the streets immediately. There will be no music in the line of march, as an ordinance of the city of Baltimore prohibits public music on Sunday. Leaders here said last night that they did not use music in their processions in most other cities and they would not feel the loss of musical accompaniment. As soon as the procession and exercises in Baltimore are completed, most of the paraders will start on the return trip to this city.

CARRANZA GUARDS WIRES.

Death Penalty for Persons Interfering with Telegraph Lines.

The State Department has been advised of a decree just promulgated by Gen. Carranza, which provides the death penalty for thieves, robbers, and persons interfering with the railroad and telegraph lines of Mexico.

It was declared at both the State Department and the Department of Justice that no information had been received here confirming of a probable defection from Carranza of his military officers. It was admitted, however, that the economic and financial situation in Mexico is desperate. The present rate of exchange is 50 Mexican pesos for one American dollar; normally the rate is one peso for fifty cents.

DRY TEN YEARS; OFF WAGON.

After Damp Two Weeks August Smith on Board Again.

Baltimore, Oct. 14.—Satisfied at having completed a ten-year self-imposed term of total abstinence, August Smith fell off the water wagon with a bump. The bump was of two-weeks' duration, according to his wife, who testified against him today at the Southwestern Police Station, where she had him haled on a warrant charging disturbing the peace. Smith's pledge is a record in the district. He said he kept it faithfully. Today he was penitent. He imposed another pledge on himself—for two years this time—and Justice Tormollan dismissed him on condition that he keep it.

AUSTRIANS LOST 30,000.

In Two Weeks' Battle on the Carso, Rome Says.

London, Oct. 14.—The Austrians have lost 30,000 men in the last two weeks of fighting on the Carso Plateau, said a wireless dispatch from Rome today. The battle continues with undiminished violence.

TO INDIAN'S WIDOW, $40,000.

Nurse Who Wed Young Brave Receives His Estate.

Ashland, Wis., Oct. 14.—The $40,000 estate of Frank R. Brown, an Indian, goes to his widow, Mrs. Caroline Rogers Brown, formerly of Avico, Ga. The Indian was only 24 and one of the richest belonging on the Bad River reservation, but he had consumption. He went to a sanatorium in Arizona in hope of cure, and there met the young nurse, whom he married October 1, 1915, with the consent and good wishes of the agent here, P. S. Everest. Just three months later he died.

"ROUMANIA DOOMED."

Constantine Is Quoted as Saying He Won't Risk Same Fate.

London, Oct. 14.—"When a high diplomatic personage besought King Constantine to change his policy," says the Daily Telegraph's Athens correspondent, "the King replied: 'I prefer to lose my throne rather than endanger Greece. I am convinced that in two weeks Roumania will no longer exist. If Greece went into the war then, after the conquest of Roumania, the irresistible German forces would be directed against Greece and she would share the fate of Serbia and Roumania.'"

DEATH BANQUET PROVIDED.

Will of New Yorker Sets Aside $250 for Dinner to Friends.

New York, Oct. 14.—Philip Goldman hated all the signs and symbols of mourning. But he would like his friends to remember him, so in his will, filed yesterday, a clause reads: "I desire that $250 be expended in some fitting occasion at some time after my burial, at which shall be gathered my relatives and friends, such as a dinner or banquet, and my wish is they should spend a cheerful evening as their recollection of me. As I do not regard mourning as desirable or sensible, my desire is that all signs and symbols of mourning be dispensed with."

New Way to Kill Rats.

Cape Town, Oct. 14.—A new way to kill the rats which infest the trenches is reported by a South African officer writing from France. He says:

"We found one of our men putting a bit of cheese on his bayonet and firing a rifle every time a rat started to eat it. Saves $500 in Tips.
Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 14.—John Summers, 17, has saved $500 in a year from his tips as a bellboy. He received $1 a month and his board. His tips ran from $10 to $20 a week. He bought a typewriter with his first savings, and rents it to guests as a side line."

"77"

Humphreys' Seventy-seven For Grip, Influenza

COLDS

It is not when the body is hot, but when it is cooling that it is most susceptible to catching cold. After exercise, change your clothing at once—don't wait until the damp things next to your skin give you a chill by checking the circulation. A dose of "Seventy-seven" taken at once restores the checked circulation, starts the blood coursing through the veins and breaks up the cold.

"Seventy-seven" contains nothing harmful nor injurious and leaves no bad after effects. A small vial of pleasant pellets fits the vest pocket; handy to carry, easy to take. 25c. at all drug stores in all America.

HOLY NAME NURSERY PLANNING "TAG DAY"

Urgeline Sisters Arranging for Money Campaign on November 1.

Plans for holding a "tag day" on November 1 for the benefit of the Holy Name Nursery, conducted by the Ursuline Sisters at 618 Third street northwest, were perfected at a meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Holy Name Day Nursery and other interested persons, held at the nursery last night.

Andrew I. Hickey, of 1816 Florida avenue northwest, who is chairman of the committee on arrangements, stated that the money obtained from the sale of the tags would be used in repairing and improving the new home of the nursery at 519 Fourth street northwest, which recently has been purchased by the sisters, as the present quarters have become much too small.

Between forty and fifty small children from 2 to 8 years of age, whose parents are unable to care for them in the daytime, are cared for by the sisters every day, and meals are furnished to some of the parents. A charge of 10 cents a day per child is made if the parent or parents are able to pay it, otherwise the children are cared for free of charge.

The institution is supported by voluntary contributions alone. At least $2,000 is needed for the nursery, and it is expected this sum and more will be realized from the sale of tags.

BATH COSTS SEAMAN $475.

Roll Vanishes as Landlubberly Swab Rubs His Back.

New York, Oct. 14.—Peter Brown, seaman on the U. S. S. Oklahoma, dropped round to see his old friends in Brooklyn yesterday and found most of them in a cheerful place near Troy and St. Mark's avenues. Seaman Brown is proud of his job and spent most of the day expatiating to his pals on the joys of life in the navy. He talked, in fact, like a recruiting poster.

But their interest was slight until he mentioned that in four years service he had saved up $475. Just to prove it to the landlubberly swabs he pulled the roll out and showed it. They didn't grab it and run, nothing coarse like that. But they invited him to join them at the public baths, Fourth avenue and President street, and while one of them performed the kindly office of scrubbing his back another solved the fearful mysteries of the pockets in those funny sailor breeches. Then they beat Seaman Brown in getting dressed and away from there.

Of all the popular styles brought out by

in the last few years, The Beltsac easily leads.

Here's a good clothes idea that "caught on" from the very first. Men found it easy, comfortable, stylish. The belt sets just right, the plaits give added freedom across the back.

Men who drive a motor car tell us that this coat doesn't show the wrinkled appearance a straight back model does after driving, and that they like it because it doesn't pull when swinging the wheel.

We recommend it; and are showing it in a dozen different fabrics.

Confidence Is a Cardinal Principle

To win the public's confidence is to adhere strictly to merchandise and methods that square with integrity and truth. We feel we have a right to claim your confidence—because we have set for ourselves a very straight line of policy—and never permit a departure from its direct course. We place before you qualities that are recognized superior; our quoted prices are just as low as such values can be sold anywhere, at any time. The truth concerning them is stronger than the fiction of sensationalism.
